La Bahia Cemetery

300832N 963805 3 ESE of Carmine

This Cemetery is located in Washington County on highway 237 near the border of Fayette County, in between the towns of Carmine and Brenham. Many people I talked to originally thought it was in Fayette County. I think it was called La Bahia Cemetery because of the La Bahia Trail. The German settlers also had their Turnverein Social club here. They called it La Bahia Turnverein.

LABAHIA TURN VERIN

Turn Verins is a sport organization that was very popular in Germany in the 1800s and the German settlers in Washington County formed this club for community activities. The La Bahia is located on State Highway 237 about a mile from US 290 in the very west end of Washington County. They have a hall and other buildings for use by it's members.

La Bahia Turn Verein was organized on July 5th 1879 by the following members:
 F. J. Kuehn, Chas Siebel, Louis Schoenberg, J. G. Lueck, John Draeger, Ed Schoenberg, H. D. Adams, L. B. Adams, Chas Hinze, Ad Kieke, Aug Duesterhoeft, Wm Plueckhahn, Aug Fuchs, Gus Tonn, E.
